- Tournament will start at 6 pm on August 3rd, 2009.
- All games will be played with standard Guitar Hero controllers (provided)
- Single elimination (one loss and you're out).
- Due to time constraints, players will be asked to use default characters and guitars.
- Players will be randomly paired, according to play level, and placed in bracket.
- Each bracket (Easy/Medium and Hard/Expert) will have their own final.
- Tournament will continue through August 7th
- Finals will be held August 7th
- Final round will last for three songs (best out of three).
- Prize will be awarded to the 1st and 2nd place winners in each bracket (prizes will be determined by the IGX Company).
- Respect yourself, the other players, the equipment, and the moderators.
- No physical threats, racial comments, or inappropriate language and behavior will be tolerated. If you are warned and not compliant with such guidelines, you will be disqualified and/or asked to leave the gaming area.
- Moderators have the authority to disqualify players.
- Arguing with the moderators about a decision may result in disqualification.
- Misuse and/or damaging of the equipment will result in the reimbursement to the IGX company and disqualification from the tournament.
- If players are more than 5 minutes late to their assigned game time, they will forfeit their position.
- Any intentional interruptions and/or pausing of games in play will lead to immediate disqualification.
- No sideline coaching is allowed. Cheering is encouraged, but do not offer advice to anyone playing a game. This will result in disqualification.
- If game glitches are discovered during tournament giving a player an unfair advantage, moderators have the right to ban using the glitch after the point in which it is discovered.
- Rules and format are subject to change.
- All rulings are final.
- Good luck and have fun!
