RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Junior and Senior shows are separately sanctioned. These shows are sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association, and its rules shall govern. The sponsoring organization is the Garden State Dairy Goat Association.
2. Separately sanctioned shows will be held for registered senior and junior does of the following breeds: Alpine, Lamancha, Nigerian Dwarf, Nubian, Recorded Grade, Saanen, and Toggenburg. This will be the order of the show.
3. The base date for computing animals' ages is August 13th, 2011.
4. The original registration certificate is required for all animals' six months of age or older and must be shown to the show secretary prior to the start of judging. For animals less than six months of age, either the original registration certificate or a duplicate application stamped by the ADGA office is acceptable. Proof of animal's ownership in the name on the registration certificate or on the stamped duplicate.
5. Out of state exhibitors must have interstate health papers for 2011, dated no more than 30 days prior to the show. New Jersey exhibitors must have health papers dated no more than 30 days prior to the show. No tests are required, just a veterinarian's statement that the herd is healthy and free of communicable diseases. A valid Certificate of Veterinary Inspection signed by an accredited veterinarian must accompany all animals. All goats to be imported shall be negative to an official tuberculosis test within 60 days prior to entry, with the exception of those originating from an accredited-free state or zone or from an accredited herd as noted on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection in compliance with the regulations put forth by the New Jersey Department of Agriculture. All goats imported four months of age or over shall be negative to an official brucellosis test within 30 days prior to entry, with the exception of those imported from certified brucellosis free herds as noted on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection in compliance with the regulations put forth by the New Jersey Department of Agriculture. Goats from an accredited-free state or zone may be imported without testing upon receipt of a permit number for entry. Permit numbers can be obtained by calling the New Jersey Division of Animal Health at (609) 292-3965 between 8:45-4:30 M-F. The permit number should be included on the CVI. Health papers will be examined and all goats' health checked before unloading. Please consult health regulations from Exhibitor Information
6. There will be no pre-show milk out.
7. Champions have the option of being shown in their age class or in the Champion Challenge class.
